The minutes of the March 19, 2013, Executive Board meetings were approved.

DISCUSSION

General Meeting

The consensus opinion of the Executive Committee was that General Meetings seem to have better attendance when held at lunch time. The Fall 2013 General Meeting will be held at lunch time.

Chapter Elections

Member Heller will follow up on the write-in candidates for the CCCC Executive Committee At-Large and MCCC Delegate Assembly to make sure that they plan to serve.

May Day Manifesto and Adjunct Faculty Issues

Member Smith presented a May Day Manifesto published by contingent faculty from SUNY New Paltz. The Manifesto summarizes the plight of contingent faculty and higher education's increasing dependence on part-time workers. The Manifesto outlines steps calling for equitable treatment of contingent faculty.

Member Smith also asked if there was any official limitation to the number of courses adjunct faculty could teach at Cape Cod CC. The Executive Board members concurred that they were unaware of any official directive limiting adjunct sections. Health insurance benefits for adjunct faculty could come into play with the federal healthcare reform once the IRS determines how to assess adjunct workload.

Monthly General Meeting

Member Smith mentioned that several MCCC chapters hold monthly General Meetings. The Executive Board held a brief discussion about holding General Meetings more than once a semester.

NEW BUSINESS

Motion: Donate $290 of the $580 that Mike Dallaire needs for reinstatement in the MCCC/MTA/NEA so that the Union can provide legal services. (Guarino/Jenkins) Passed
